Enhancements

- You can now use three or more characters in an Advanced Policy Display Name match rule. (7/14)
- There may be some changes to the displayed names of software on your endpoints, and that could also affect your Required Software policies, and Advanced Policies with name-matching rules. This change is to ensure you have accurate software names on your endpoints. (7/17)